

August 13, 1907.

To Superintendents.

Gentlemen:--

The following examinations are announced to be held in each district at the Headquarters.

1. SPECIAL EXAMINATION IN ENGLISH. September 3, 1907. The written examination will be held at 10 o'clock A.M., two and one-half hours being allowed for its completion.

The oral examination will be held in the afternoon.

This examination is intended for Porto Rican teachers in service on June 1, 1907, who failed to pass the examination at that time or who did not take the examination.

Failure on the part of such to pass the coming examination may result in suspension from duty.

2. SPECIAL EXAMINATION FOR PREPARATORY TEACHERS. September 4 and 5, 1907. This examination is intended for persons who have been teaching in the preparatory schools during the past school-year but who failed to take the examination given in July, 1907.

3. SPECIAL EXAMINATION FOR SEVENTH-GRADE PUPILS. September 4 and 5, 1907, 10 A.M. This examination is intended for pupils who failed to pass the examination in Geography, Physiology and Hygiene, held in June.

4. REGULAR EXAMINATION FOR EIGHTH-GRADE DIPLOMAS, FOR RURAL TEACHERS' LICENSES, AND FOR GRADED TEACHERS' LICENSES. September 4, 5, and 6, 1907.

The rules given in the Manual de Exámenes will be strictly followed in these examinations, as well as in the examination for preparatory teachers' licenses.

Respectfully,

EDWIN G. DEXTER
Commissioner of Education.
